

TABLE OF CONTENTS

		Pages
1.	Letter dated 29/04/13 – Public Defender to the Honourable President of the Senate
2.	Letter dated 29/04/13 – Public Defender to the Honourable Speaker of the House of Representatives
3.	APOLOGIA	i - ix
4.	INTRODUCTION	1-5
	Establishment of Public Defender outposts - 2
5	TIVOLI GARDENS AND “DUDUS”	6-9
6.	THE PUBLIC DEFENDER and INDECOM distinguished	10
7.	THE PUBLIC DEFENDER: ROLE AND FUNCTION	11-18
8.	BACKDROP OF THE ‘INCURSION’ OR ‘SIEGE’	19-26
	March on downtown Kingston - 20
	Announcement of a State of Emergency; Mr. Golding’s second nation-wide broadcast - 21-22
	Tivoli Gardens residents advised to evacuate - 22
	JCF announcement of operations - 23
	Mr. Golding addresses Parliament - 24
	Public Defender begins investigation - 25-26
9.	DECLARATION OF STATE OF EMERGENCY AND THE ‘INCURSION’ OR ‘SIEGE’	27-47
	State of Emergency justified - 29

B.

Pages

Suspension of fundamental rights	-	31
Conferment of emergency powers	-	31
Review Tribunal	-	32-33
Jamaica House meeting	-	33-34
Tour of Tivoli Gardens and 'Rasta City'; tales of rampant aggression	-	34-35
'Rasta City'	-	36
Detainees	-	37
Visit to Madden's Funeral Home	-	38
"Debriefing"	-	38-39
Letter to Police Commissioner and Chief of Defence Staff d/d 26/5/10	-	39-41
Burial plans aborted	-	42-43
X-ray of corpses	-	42
Death toll/body count	-	43
Weapons "finds"/"discoveries"	-	43-45
Questions arising from "incursion" activities	-	45-46

10. SUPPORT OF INVESTIGATIONS BY THE PARLIAMENT, THE UNDP,
INTERNATIONAL DONOR PARTNERS AND OTHERS

47-82

Supplemental funding provided	-	47-48
Forensic Services	-	48
Worldwide search for assistance	-	48
Who killed Who?	-	48-49
Assistance offered by friendly nations	-	49
Observer Pathologists	-	50

C.		Pages
Observer oversight	-	50-51
Agreement re autopsy Protocol	-	51-52
Agreement on revised autopsy Protocol	-	52
Identification of bodies	-	52-53
Autopsies	-	53-54
Conduct of autopsies in accordance with best practices; Protocols	-	54-55
Storage of forensic data	-	55-56
The KSAC and May Pen Cemetery burial data	-	56-58
Alleged extra-judicial killings	-	58-62
Absence of clothing and expert forensic evidence	-	62-63
Further significance of swabbing or smelling of hands	-	64
Unidentified Corpses	-	65-82
11. MISSING PERSONS		83-85
12. MORE ON DETAINEES		86-99
13. BSI'S CRIMINAL INVESTIGATIONS		100
The JDF and its stance on the OPD/BSI investigations	-	100
i. The mortar ordnance	-	107-113
ii. USA Homeland Security surveillance	-	115-116
Accountability of Chief of Defence Staff and Police Commissioner	-	116
Recommendation for 'alteration'/ amendment of the Public Defender (Interim) Act, 2000	-	116-117

D.

Pages

14.	THE KILLING OF MR. KEITH OXFORD CLARKE	118-127
	Course of a ferocious military assault -	119-121
	An investigator's need for caution -	121-123
	Unanswered Questions -	124-126
15.	TWO LEGAL ISSUES: SELF DEFENCE AND SUPERIOR ORDERS	127-132
16.	BALLISTICS	133-139
	Crucial Importance of ballistic examinations -	134
	Public Defender ballistics expert -	134-135
	Staffing, tooling of Firearms Laboratory; chronic output backlog, etc. -	136-137
	JDF position re ballistic examinations -	137-138
	The Ballistics Road Map -	138-139
17.	INDECOM: ROLE AND FUNCTION	140-147
	INDECOM and the 'incursion'/Keith Clarke investigations -	147-150
	Accountability of senior JDF/JCF personnel -	150-151
	Ballistic examination of "Keith Clarke" weapons, etc.; Breach of Ballistics Road Map -	151-152
	Absolute necessity of completing ballistics work -	152
18.	THE JAMAICA CONSTABULARY FORCE POLICE USE OF FORCE AND FIREARMS POLICY ('THE JCF POLICY')	154-165

E.		Pages
	The JCF Policy and the incidence of “shootouts”	- 156-157
	Questions/Issues to be answered/resolved judicially
	The Public Defender and the start of JCF/BSI investigations	- 158
	The JCF Policy, illegal gunmen and “due process”	- 161-162
	Police Allegations of “Shootouts”	- 162
	The Cadaveric Spasm	- 163
	Public Defender’s 2010-12 “Strategic Plan”	- 164-165
19.	THE INTERNATIONAL COVENANT ON CIVIL AND POLITICAL RIGHTS [ICCPR]	166-172
20.	COST; ECONOMIC AND SOCIAL IMPACT OF STATE OF EMERGENCY	173-180
	AIR/I-SEE Note on “Achieving Renewal of the Human Spirit in Tivoli through Economic Revitalization: A Social Entrepreneurship model”	- 178-179
21.	BEHIND JAMAICA’S POLITICAL GARRISONS	181-185
22.	INQUEST OR COMMISSION OF ENQUIRY?	186-230
	The Inquest	- 186-193
	The Commission of Enquiry	- 194-205
	Judge Patrick Robinson’s Contribution	- 205-208
	Handling of the “Morant Bay Rebellion” and “Bloody Sunday Massacre” Compared	- 208-209

F.

Pages

The “Morant Bay Rebellion”	-	210-215
The “Bloody Sunday Massacre”	-	216-224
Complaint of a Widgery whitewash; appointment of a fresh judicial enquiry	-	218-230
Findings of two Enquiries contrasted	-	219-224
Re a judicial enquiry and the “lapse of time”	-	224-225
British Government’s acceptance of Responsibility; apology	-	225-227
Parallels and guidance offered by the “Bloody Sunday imbroglio”	-	227-230

23. LIST OF PRINCIPAL RECOMMENDATIONS

230

24. EPILOGUE

231-248

